The school supports the principle of equality for all students regarding access to and participation in the school. The school respects the diversity of traditions, values, beliefs, languages and ways of life in society. The school acknowledges the right of parents to send their children to a school of the parent's choice, subject to the resources available to the school including classroom accommodation, class size, teaching resources and financial resources and subject to the capacity of the school to provide for the needs of any applicant or student. The school will maintain a list of refused applicants for each class, their place on that list having been determined under the criteria are fulfilled.

The Board of Management of Caragh National School, in its Policy of Admissions/Enrolment, respects the rights of the existing school community and the children already enrolled. Consequently, the Board of Management reserves the right to determine the maximum number of children in each class, bearing in mind:

- Health and Safety Concerns regarding Staff and children
- Available classroom space
- Multi-grade classes
- Educational needs of the children
- Presence of children with special needs
- Department of Education and Science class size directives
- Appropriate Supports and Resources are available
- Time of school year

Admission to the school is, of course, subject to the resources available to the school including classroom accommodation, class size, teaching resources and financial resource, and subject to the capacity of the school to provide for the needs of those who apply for admission. Where the school lacks the necessary resources to meet the needs of any applicant or student, it will make every effort to secure those resources where the resources cannot be secured, the school reserves the unfettered right to refuse admission. It is the responsibility of parents / guardians of any child to inform the school of any such needs on the enrolment application form for the child's own welfare. In this context the school authorities will have equal regard for the welfare of all the students and their right to an education in an atmosphere that is not detrimental to their physical, emotional, moral, social or intellectual development.

Telephone calls or personal school visits concerning enrolment will be facilitated, but are not in themselves enrolment applications.

Date of application, child's date of birth, address and telephone contact number are recorded in the School Record of Applications, and the attached acknowledgement (Appendix 2) together with a copy of this policy is sent to the applicant. Following this evaluation, the Principal will make a recommendation to the board, listing proposed enrolments for the forthcoming year. Once an enrolment list is approved by the Board, all applicants
